CLARA MIDCALF OF CITY SCHOOLS IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Vice Principal of Intermediate Passes Away As Result of Attack of Influenza

Miss Clara Midcalf, vice principal of the intermediate school, died at 3 o'clock this morning, Saturday, March 11, 1922, at her home 111 North Orange street, after a prolonged attack of influenza.

Reports from her bedside yesterday stated that she was slightly better and hope was extended by her many friends for her recovery.

Miss Midcalf was born in Windsor, Ontario, Canada, for the past fifteen years, however, she had been a citizen of the United States.

Miss Midcalf's whole life was devoted to the interests of children. Into her profession as a teacher she put both her mind and heart. Before coming west, she was godmother for several years at the juvenile court in St. Paul. In the spring of 1913 she joined the faculty of the intermediate school where she was actively engaged in school activities as vice-principal up to the time of her final illness.

Tribute By Superintendent.

"It is hard to tell the whole truth about Miss Midcalf's service to the community, because she did a great deal of it in a very unobtrusive way," stated Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools, this morning. "She not only filled her place as a teacher and vice principal as well as any one could possibly have filled it, and with the highest efficiency, but she was right behind any movement which was for the good of the schools. She never spared herself and always put her heart and soul into every enterprise in which she was interested."

"I don't believe there will be a teacher or a child who won't feel deeply her loss. I believe every child in the school looked to her as a friend. They all loved her."

District Deputy Grand Matron to Be Guest

At the regular meeting last night at Masonic temple of Glen Eyrle Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, with Mrs. E. L. Parke, worthy matron, in charge, four new members were initiated and plans were made for March 24, at which Clara Alvarez of Los Angeles, district deputy grand matron of California, will pay her official visit. There will be a banquet at 6:30 o'clock, with tickets in charge of Mrs. E. L. Parke, Miss Mildred Lyon and Mrs. Orma V. Naudain. Reservations must be made by March 21. Last night's meeting was attended by over 150 members.

A number of the members of the local chapter are planning to go to the Masonic temple at Figueroa and Pico streets, Los Angeles, tonight, to attend the reception to be given to the grand officers of the Eastern Star of the State of California.

Girl Scouts, Troup 1, on Three-day Outing

A party of the Glendale Girl Scouts, Troup No. 1, accompanied by their captain, Miss Gladys Sharpe, left at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon for a three days' outing in Arroyo Seco, where they had camped in a private cabin owned by Miss Lulu Hursh, of Pasadena, a friend of Miss Sharpe. Through the courtesy of F. A. Beach and George Stanley they made the trip by motor, taking camping supplies with them.

This group of girls are all scouts in high standing and are taking this trip for the express purpose of completing their semaphore tests and other first class scout tests, and anticipating being enabled to return full fledged first class scouts. The party included Mary Stanley, Frederica Browne, Lucile Beach, Alexandria Bagley and Miss Sharpe. A special guest was Helen Stanley.

Anaesthesia Gas Will Be Made in Glendale Factory

Dr. Donald E. Baxter, formerly of the Rockefeller foundation, has purchased the large residence and grounds at 910 North Brand boulevard where he is installing a factory for the manufacture of nitrous oxide gas.

The equipment and machinery are being installed now and operation of the plant will soon be started, it is stated. It is expected that this industry will bring thousands of dollars to Glendale, as the gas, which is used as anaesthesia by doctors and dentists, will be produced on a wholesale scale.

Dr. Baxter has become a member of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, and while his place will attract but little attention, it will rank as a major industry. The chamber officials consider Dr. Baxter as a decided acquisition, as he is a man of high standing in the medical profession.

Miss Marion Frost J. B. Burn's Bride at Home Ceremony

MRS. J. B. BURN

Formerly Miss Marion V. Frost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Frost, who was married at noon today. Mr. Burn is a realty salesman. The young couple will reside in Glendale.

Reception and Luncheon Held After Wedding at H. C. Frost Residence

The wedding of Miss Marion V. Frost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Frost, of 667 Patterson avenue, and J. B. Burn, son of Mrs. Martha E. Burn of Society Hill, South Carolina, took place at high noon today, March 11, 1922, at the home of the bride's parents, with Rev. E. E. Ford officiating. The single ring ceremony was used. This pretty home wedding was solemnized in a setting of palms, greenery and white carnations and in the presence of immediate relatives and intimate friends.

The bride wore a gown of Mohawk colored silk taffeta, with hat to match, and was attended as bridesmaid by her cousin, Miss Dorothy Vredenburg. H. S. Burn, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played on the victrola as the young couple took their places.

Following the ceremony a reception and wedding luncheon was held, after which Mr. and Mrs. Burn departed on their honeymoon trip to San Diego. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends at 667 Patterson avenue.

Mrs. Burn and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frost, have resided in Glendale about two years, coming here from Pittsburgh, Pa. She has been a student of music and the violin.

Officer in U. S. Army

Mr. Burn is salesman with the realty firm of Donner-Hemenway-Burn of 119 South Brand boulevard and has been a resident here since August 5, 1920. He was graduated from the high school at Society Hill, St. David's Academy, after which he entered the University of South Carolina. At the end of his sophomore year at that institution he went to the middle west and worked in the wheat fields during the first part of the war. Later he was appointed by the university to go to Plattsburg officers' training camp and was commissioned there as a second lieutenant in the army and was then stationed at Columbia university, New York city.

While there he was athletic officer, and post-exchange officer and also had charge of a company. After leaving the service in January, 1919, he returned to the University of South Carolina and again took up his studies, graduating in 1920 with the B. A. degree.

Immediately after his graduation Mr. Burn and two friends made the trip across the continent to California by automobile and since his arrival in this city on August 5, 1920, he has been engaged as real estate salesman and broker.

St. Patrick Dinner at W. Hamilton Home

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hamilton, of 227 West Garfield avenue, were host and hostess last night to a group of friends at a St. Patrick's dinner party given at their home. Decorations of shamrocks were used and were also carried out in the place cards and molded in the center of the brick ice cream, the color scheme of green and white predominating in the menu.

Those present included Mrs. Nettie J. Dennison, W. B. Ames, Miss Ames, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kearney, Wilfred Kearney, Dr. Ellsworth Dodd and Mrs. Jean Cunningham, of Los Angeles, Miss Juliet Pearce of San Pedro, Mrs. Jennie Dossie, Miss Beatrice Dossie, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hamilton of Glendale.

VISITORS HERE FROM IOWA

Mrs. John E. Rockhold, of 330 Burchett street, enjoyed a visit recently from her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Webb, and Mr. W. Webster, father of Mrs. Webb, all of Postville, Iowa, and who have been spending the winter at Long Beach. They plan to leave for their home early in April.

Mrs. T. J. Keleher Is Hostess at Luncheon

Mrs. T. J. Keleher of 528 North Louise street entertained with a beautifully appointed luncheon at her home Thursday in honor of Mrs. Carlisle Blackwell, who is here from York City with her two children, and Miss Peggy Kuntz, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Robert Cullen of Glendale and is leaving soon for her home in Philadelphia. The pastel colors were carried out in the decorations of tulips in large baskets with varicolored maline bows, place cards and favor baskets.

The guests included Mrs. Carlisle Blackwell, Miss Peggy Kuntz, Mrs. George Melford of Hollywood, Mrs. Allan Hale of Los Angeles, Mrs. Howard Oswald of Burbank, Mrs. Alr Goulding, Mrs. Robert Cullen, Mrs. W. A. Tanner, Mrs. C. A. Redmond, Mrs. R. L. Young, Mrs. L. C. Wolfe, Mrs. Lillian Stone of Honolulu and the hostess, Mrs. T. J. Keleher. Various games were enjoyed following the luncheon, first prize being awarded to Mrs. George Melford, second prize to Mrs. C. A. Redmond and consolation prize to Mrs. Alr Goulding.

Journey Around World Is Enjoyed by Guild

A "trip around the world" was enjoyed in Glendale last night by a group of sixty-five members of the Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church, which was arranged by Miss Marie Myer, vice-president of the organization. The first stop on this journey, or progressive party, was at the home of Miss Mildred Cole, 311 North Central avenue, where the members visited Hawaii. The house was decorated with palms and things suggesting this popular island, with refreshments in keeping. The next stop on the journey was at Japan, at the home of Miss Mary McMill, 1451 East Wilson avenue. Decorations suggesting this land of "cherry blossoms" were used and refreshments served in keeping. The next stop was at South America, at the home of Miss Phyllis Baker, 331 North Maryland avenue, with decorations and refreshments suggestive of this country. The last stop on the return home was "America" in the social hall of the church, where American refreshments were served.

LeRoy Tepe Injured When Struck by Auto

LeRoy Tepe, son of Mrs. H. J. Tepe, and a pupil at the intermediate school, while playing with a soccer ball in front of his home Thursday afternoon, was struck by a passing automobile and quite badly injured. He is suffering from a slight concussion of the brain and minor injuries also. At last report he was doing as well as could be expected.

ABSENT CONCERT TO BE FEATURED BY LOCAL LEGION

Wireless Phone to Be Used for Entertainment Planned for Friday, April 7

Friday night, April 7, is scheduled to be Glendale's first "Radio Night," according to an announcement made last night at the meeting of the local post of the American Legion. At that time the Legion hall on East Broadway will be prepared for the audience to hear, via wireless telephone, a selected concert by a theatre orchestra of Los Angeles.

An attempt will be made by the Legionnaires to obtain a specially selected speaker for the occasion, whose message will also be delivered via wireless.

Chester E. Weaver, of 145 North Kenwood street, well known local wireless and radio expert, will be in charge of the amplifier and other equipment for the performance.

The "absent concert" will not be given exclusively to the Legion members, as it was decided last night that the members of all patriotic organizations in Glendale will be invited to attend. No admission charge will be made, although a silver collection will be made for the purpose of swelling the post's sick fund.

Expect Record Crowd.

Frank Weller, chairman of the social committee, reported that arrangements are being made to entertain a record crowd at the Legion's first annual "smoker," which is scheduled to be staged in place of the regular meeting on Friday night, March 24. All ex-service men living in Glendale, will be invited to the affair, which will be a "real elbow rubbing get-together." The speaker for the occasion will be announced during the coming week.

The names of Z. B. West and Dr. C. Galen Gould were stricken from the post's roster, due to their recent transferring to outside posts. The former is now a member of Santa Ana post, while the latter has joined the Santa Paula organization.

A communication was read from the State Civil Service Commission in Sacramento announcing that examinations will be held in the near future for building trades, railroad positions, marine trades, skilled trades and unskilled trades.

National Employment Day.

The examinations are to be held twice a year, all applications being in by March 25 and October 1. The examinations will be located in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Sacramento. The examinations will be open to all citizens and those who desire further information regarding them will be furnished with particulars at the American Legion hall.

Plans are being formulated by members of the Glendale post for the proper observance of the National Employment Day, which will be on March 20.

This day has been set aside as a day to be observed by all posts throughout the country and is sponsored by the national officers.

Quarterly Convention at Christian Church

The Central Christian church held its regular quarterly convention last night in the interest of the Bible school and Christian Endeavor society. Edgar Lloyd Smith acted as chairman and read the reports and minutes of the organization. All outlying districts, except Pasadena, were represented. George Tinsley, state superintendent of the work, gave an address and predicted a bright future. Rev. C. A. Cole and Floyd Mercer also spoke.

There is a contest on at present between the north and south sections for a silver loving cup which will be awarded to that unit making the best showing in a drive for new members and general efficiency in its work. The Christian church will soon move into its new building at Colorado and Louise streets. The structure is an imposing one and is expected to cost in the neighborhood of $100,000, together with its furnishings and pipe organ. Mr. Mercer, the superintendent, will start a special training course for forty-five new workers who, with the present fifty workers that they now have, will continue instruction in Bible school work. His assistants are Leslie Bennett, Mrs. H. T. Stevens, Mrs. C. A. Cole and Miss Laura W. Brown.

MOVE INTO NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Prather and son moved last week into the new home they have just purchased at 500 Alexander street. Mr. Prather is general agent for the refrigerator department of the Santa Fe. Mr. and Mrs. Prather entertained as dinner guests Thursday night, S. M. Fulton, of San Francisco, who is the assistant general agent for the refrigerator department of that railroad.

NOW IN NEW RESIDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tracy have moved into their new five-room duplex house at 340 North Jackson street, recently completed. The residence is stucco of Spanish architecture with walnut finishings. One apartment will be occupied by Mr. Tracy and the other by his mother and sister, who are expected in this city shortly from Colorado Springs.

PRESIDENT HARDING ENJOYS GAME OF GOLF TODAY

ORMOND BEACH, Fla., March 11.—President Harding arrived here this morning and played eighteen holes of golf with Speaker Gillett, E. B. McLean and Under Secretary of State Fletcher. Threatening weather which earlier had promised to upset the day's plans, gave way to a balmy clear day and the president enjoyed his morning to the fullest.

ALL OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA IS SWEEP BY RAIN

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Brought by a storm moving in from the north Pacific slope, rain fell at all points in southern California today. Occasional rain tonight probably followed by clearing weather Sunday was the forecast announced today at the local weather bureau. Santa Barbara reported .80 of an inch, and Covina .30 of an inch. Other stations reported light showers. By 5 a. m. today .05 of an inch of rain had fallen in Los Angeles. Rain began falling here several hours before daylight.

NUMBER KILLED, WOUNDED IN GUERRILLA WARFARE

LONDON, March 11.—Thirty-two men have been killed and 76 wounded in the guerrilla warfare between the constabulary and the striking miners in the Rand within the past twelve hours, according to a Reuter's dispatch from Johannesburg, received here this afternoon. Johannesburg is said to be menaced by the strikers. The fighting has been especially warm at Benoni, where three officers and nineteen constables were killed. There has also been fighting at Fordsburg and at the Bakpan mine. While the first news that came from the South African district indicated that the trouble was merely a result of miners going on strike, late reports indicate that an attempt is being made to overthrow law and order and establish a soviet form of government. Dispatches state that the strikers have sought to seize strategic points from which they could establish their soviet and rule the Rand.

SECRETARY HUGHES GETS INTO FIGHT OVER TREATY

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Secretary of State Hughes injected himself into the treaty fight in the senate today by writing a lengthy letter to Senator Underwood, one of the American delegates at the conference, in which he scored the thinly veiled intimations made in the senate that the American delegates were "imposed on" in the making of the four-power pact. Such intimations, Hughes declared vigorously, constitute a "reflection" on the American delegates. The secretary's letter hinged about questions that have been raised in the senate as to the authorship of the treaty and the open charges made by some senators that it "was conceived by Balfour and written by Kato." While not answering the question of "who wrote the treaty" directly, Secretary of State Hughes indicated in his letter that he himself was the author of the pact. The failure of the senate to ratify the treaty, Hughes declared, would be "nothing short of a national calamity."

MAY REVEAL 'INSIDE STORY' OF DENTON MYSTERY

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Amazing developments were promised soon in connection with the murder of Jacob Charles Denton, for which Mrs. Louise Lofie Peete was sentenced to a life term in San Quentin, when it became known today that Attorney S. S. Hahn was in San Francisco for the purpose of taking depositions, which, it was declared, would reveal the inside story of the mysterious slaying and involve other persons not hitherto connected with the crime. Mrs. Angela Kaufman, wealthy philanthropist, has interested herself in the case and three other persons of wealth also were reported to have aided in raising a fund with which it was hoped would clear up the mystery which surrounded the finding of Denton's body in a sealed crypt in the basement of his mansion here. Attorney Hahn announced he would return to Los Angeles Monday with the depositions and a signed statement of Mrs. Peete, that these documents would be submitted to Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney, and that he would cooperate with the authorities in getting at the true facts in the case and bringing others to justice if the investigation warrants such action.

UNDERWOOD GIVES HIS VIEWS ON FOUR-POWER TREATY

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Not the scrapping of battleships nor the naval holiday, decreed by the arms conference, but the four-power treaty constitutes the real guarantee of the peace of the world, Senator Underwood, the democratic leader of the senate and a member of the American arms delegation, declared today in his defense of the pact. "The naval treaty is remarkable, in that for the first time in the history of the world, nations have really agreed to limit their armaments, but nevertheless their relative strength remains the same," Underwood said. "The Chinese treaties establish a magna charta to provide sovereignty and territorial integrity of China in the future. The four-power treaty is the one that stands for peace by mutual understanding and all that peace means. Thus amended, the four-power pact provides for peace in the Pacific, guaranteed by mutual pledges of all the signatory powers to respect the integrity of the territory of each, and in case of differences between them to confer. There is nothing in the treaty to justify either of the interpretations given it by its critics, that it provides for an offensive or defensive alliance, or if it does not, that it means nothing. The real issue involved is that of peace in the Orient, the issue of safety to our country."

MRS. OBENCHAIN'S CLAIM OF AMNESIA TO BE FOUGHT

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Madalynne Obenchain's startling claim that she was a victim of amnesia for several days after the murder of J. Belton Kennedy will be branded as a "dodge" to aid her escape explaining her alleged protection of Arthur Burch, co-defendant in the case, when the prosecution introduces its rebuttal testimony Monday, it developed today. A statement made by Mrs. Obenchain at the district attorney's office August 6, the day after the murder when she claims her mind was "numbed," will be produced by Deputy District Attorney Keyes to show that she deliberately protected Burch by neglecting to inform investigators that he was in Los Angeles at the time of the slaying. Keyes will also introduce a statement made by Mrs. Obenchain on the morning of August (Continued on page 2)

RELIGION HOPE FOR UNREST PROBLEMS, SAYS SPEAKER

Christabel Pankhurst, Famous Suffragette of England, Gives Address Here

"In order for the people of the world to be looking for a greater wisdom and reliable solution of the problems of war and unrest, they must realize that there is only one hope, and that is only to be found in religion. Hopes of real progress must be placed upon the greatest and more distinct revelation of divine guidance, a new salvation of a slightly different kind which will be received the sooner the people of the world prepare for it."

This was the big message of the lecture given last night by Christabel Pankhurst, famous suffragette, of London, England, at the first of a series of three entertainments given under the auspices of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of Glendale, at the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium.

Proceeding the lecture by Miss Pankhurst, Miss Alma Geiger, rendered two difficult piano numbers, "Prelude in C Sharp Minor," by Rachmaninoff, and also a selection from "Venice and Naples," by Liszt.

Mrs. Margaret Biggs, president of the club, announced the entertainment to be given March 24, by the Cadman trio, "The Melodrama of Hiawatha," based on Longfellow's masterpiece, set to music by Cadman. This will be given by Miss Alma Geiger, of Glendale, pianist; Constance Balfour, vocalist; Mrs. W. R. Garrett, reader. The artists will be in Indian costume and there will be a unique stage setting.

The last of the series of three entertainments will be given on April 14, instead of April 7, by the Harry Girard-La Bonti quartette, "The Trend of Time," a lyrical idyl.

Tells of Business Women. Mrs. Biggs then introduced Miss Pankhurst, a woman who has done much for other women, for her own country and other countries. Her lecture, in part, was as follows: "The American business woman seems to excel, just as the American (Continued on Page 12).

FAREWELL PARTY IS GIVEN

The officers of N. P. Banks Corps, and the Kensington Club, gave a farewell party this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Krethmer, 317 North Orange street, for Mrs. Jennie Tincher, junior vice-president of the Corps, who is returning to Washington, D. C., for an indefinite time, after sojourning over a year in Glendale.

HERE FROM PHILADELPHIA

Miss Marian Eaches, of Philadelphia, arrived in Glendale Thursday and will spend the winter with Mrs. Mary E. Clark, 501 Alexander street. Mrs. Clark was formerly a resident of Philadelphia and recently purchased a beautiful home on Alexander street.

24.49 Inches of Rain for Season, So Gauge Shows

One inch of rain fell this morning in Glendale in almost less time than it takes to tell about it.

For several hours the streets were little rivers and at intersections in the southern and western portions of the city the water was high above the shoe tops.

According to H. E. Bartlett's gauge, one inch had fallen up to 10 o'clock this morning and at that hour the downpour was at a peak.

This gives a total of 24.49 inches of rain so far this season as compared with 9.3 inches to the same date a year ago.

No damage is reported although many construction and painting jobs were tied up by the storm. The dark clouds of the previous day had given warning of considerable rain, but it is expected to clear up the first of the week.

OCCIDENTAL GLEE CLUB'S CONCERT MUCH ENJOYED

Fine Program Is Presented at High School to Aid Football Team Fund

A fine musical program was presented in the local high school auditorium Friday afternoon by the Occidental Glee Club, under the auspices of Glendale Union high school's "G" club, and was given to raise money for doctor bills occasioned during the University football season, according to those who attended.

The program included the following numbers: "Fair and Bright" (Lamothe) by the entire club; (tenor solo selected, by Edison Rice; "Soldiers' Chorus" (Comod), entire club; quartet selected, by Messrs. Rice, Boltinhouse, McClellan, Walton; club members, "Old McDonald" (Selected) and the "Goblins" (Parks); violin solo selected, by Franklin Stone; "Policemen's Chorus" (Sullivan), by Donald Walker, and chorus; piano solo selected, Raymond McFeters; instrumental number, selected, Messrs. Madden, Eggleston, Lawyer, and Condit; "Occidental Fair" (Ward), by the entire club.

A fine appearance was presented by the members of the club, who were attired in sports costume, including white trousers and sweaters, with the "Occidental Glee Club" monogram. The director of the club is Professor J. J. Dupuy, and Raymond McFeters is the accompanist. This is the sixteenth season for the glee club and it has an enrollment of twenty-two at the present time.

Three Wildcats Bagged With Only One Shot

PITTSFIELD, Mass.—Martin J. Race, of Great Barrington, has been awarded $15 for killing three wildcats with one shot.

Race was hunting on Beartown Mountain, when he came across three cats fighting over the remains of a dead partridge. He fired one shot, and all three of the animals dropped. He later filed a bounty claim for $5 on each of the cats.

$1,000,000 APPROPRIATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11.—The Lodge resolution authorizing the president to appoint a commission to represent the United States government at the centennial celebration of Brazilian independence to be held at Rio de Janeiro, September next, was favorably reported today by the senate foreign relations committee. The resolution carried an appropriation of $1,000,000.

FOR ALASKA GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Although the administration's policy toward Alaska has not been definitely determined, President Harding will insist upon concentration of authority in the conduct of Alaskan affairs, it was stated officially at the White House. The president has not decided whether this authority should be vested in the department of the interior or the department of agriculture.

SEED BILL LOSES OUT

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11.—A bill appropriating $1,000,000 to buy seed grain for farmers of the northwest states failed of passage in the house because supporters of the measure could not muster the necessary two-thirds majority. The vote was 191 to 99. As passed by the senate, the bill carried an appropriation of $5,000,000.

DEMOCRAT MAKES CHARGES

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11.—Alleging that the Republican congress has failed to effectually remedy agricultural depression in the United States, Representative Aswell, Democrat of Louisiana, assailed Majority Leader Mondell and Representative Fess of Ohio in the house and charged the latter with "playing cheap partisan politics."

NEW IRRIGATION MEASURE

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The house has passed a bill extending the reclamation law to irrigation districts. The vote was 285 to 10. The bill enables owners and occupants of land under government construction and operated irrigation projects to form irrigation districts under state laws.

KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

SAN DIEGO, March 11.—George Patterson, son-in-law of W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central railroad, was almost instantly killed when the automobile in which he was driving en route to San Diego from his home at Pasadena skidded and turned turtle near Oceanside.

AWAIT ACTION ON TARIFF

MONTREAL, Que., March 11.—Nothing will be done towards trade reciprocity between Canada and the United States until after final action by the United States congress upon the Fordney tariff act, it was announced by W. S. Fielding, minister of finance.

Cuba's 1919 crop was officially estimated as being worth $491,761,547, not including $5,000,000 worth of molasses.

8, after Burch's connection with the case had been discovered without her knowledge. In this statement, it was said today, Mrs. Obenchain answered questions readily until Keyes suddenly asked her if she knew Arthur Burch. Up until this moment Burch's name had never been mentioned. Caught by surprise, Mrs. Obenchain said: "I have nothing to say." The statement of August 8 will show that Keyes tried repeatedly to have Mrs. Obenchain explain Burch's presence in Los Angeles but that after his name was mentioned to her for the first time she refused to answer any questions concerning the case. Keyes will introduce the statements for the purpose of substantiating his charge that Mrs. Obenchain, by her stubborn silence after Burch was brought into the case, protected her co-defendant. The statements will also be the prosecution's answer to Mrs. Obenchain's surprising testimony yesterday afternoon that she could not remember having visited Keyes' office August 6 and that for several days after the murder her mind was "befuddled" and "suspended." It will be charged that her amnesia story is only an avenue to enable her to escape explaining why she did not tell the authorities Burch was here and had left Los Angeles on the morning after the murder.

R. J. WYNNE, FORMER POSTMASTER GENERAL, IS DEAD
WASHINGTON, March 11.—Robert J. Wynne, postmaster general in 1904, died here this afternoon.

PAYROLL OF $10,000 IS CAPTURED BY FOUR BANDITS
PITTSBURG, Pa., March 11.—Two paymasters of the Bernard Gloekler company, store fitting dealers, were held up here today and relieved of a $10,000 payroll by four bandits. The four bandits escaped in their automobile.

NUMBER OF MINERS KILLED BY AIRPLANE ATTACK
LONDON, March 11.—A bomb from an airplane which struck and shattered a hall at Benoni, South Africa, today killed a number of the striking miners who were holding a meeting within, according to a dispatch from Johannesburg.

FIRST CABINET BABY OF HARDING ADMINISTRATION
WASHINGTON, March 11.—The first cabinet baby of the Harding administration arrived this morning at the home of Secretary of Labor and Mrs. J. B. Davis. It was a ten-pound girl. The Davises already have two children, a boy and a girl.

ROB STORE AND THEN STEAL AUTO TO MAKE ESCAPE
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., March 11.—Robbers this morning obtained $2000 in money and jewelry from the Welch jewelry store, walked out to the sidewalk, where scores of people were passing, and commandeered an automobile, throwing the owner out and making good their escape.

MAN WINS HIS FIGHT TO PREVENT BEING EXTRADITED
SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Jalet Lindenberg, pioneer Alaskan, and reputed wealthy, won his fight against extradition to Pierce county, Washington, to face charges in connection with the failure of a bank there, when Superior Judge Louderback granted a writ of habeas corpus. He held that the Washington indictment was insufficient for extradition.

REBELS AT LIMERICK AGREE TO EVACUATE, IS REPORT
LONDON, March 11.—A settlement has been reached at Limerick, according to a dispatch received this morning. The rebels have agreed to evacuate the barracks they have been occupying, and to depart from the city. Matters are different at Belfast. Two shootings occurred at daybreak and there was every prospect of a black week-end. A meeting of the Ulster cabinet has been called for today.

CUMBERLAND RIVER IS REACHING DANGER STAGE
NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 11.—Rising steadily at the rate of an inch an hour, the Cumberland river early today reached a stage of 44.7 feet, inundating lowlands, railway yards, and basements of warehouses along the river banks. Due to continued rainfall in northern Tennessee and the Ohio valley, the water has passed the high water mark of last spring and threatens to reach the high record of fifty feet, established several years ago.

BANDITS ESCAPE WITH COMPANY'S $30,000 PAYROLL
BROWNSVILLE, Pa., March 11.—Six bandits who held up an interurban car near here today, obtained the $30,000 payroll of the Rainey Coal company, which was being taken by five employees of the company to its mine at Allison, Pa. Fifty passengers aboard the car were searched and their valuables taken. Elmer Hill, a special officer, guarding the coal company's payroll, was shot and painfully wounded when he attempted to resist the bandits.

OUTBREAK IN INDIA IS FEARED BY GREAT BRITAIN

LONDON, March 11.—The government, fearing disorders in India, following the arrest of Mahamat Ghandi, leader of the non-cooperationists, today ordered that authorities take full precautions to preserve peace. Thus far there have been no disturbances. Prior to his arrest, Ghandi urged his followers to remain quiet, but to carry on his program of peaceful resistance. Bhil tribesmen, under the leadership of Motilal, armed with guns, swords, bows and arrows, clashed with a detachment from the Bhil army corps at Idar Wednesday, according to a dispatch received by Reuters agency from Delhi. The tribesmen opened fire and the government troops returned it, killing twenty-two tribesmen and wounding twenty-nine. Early dispatches received from Calcutta state that the moderates are gaining strength in the neighboring districts. The India office has been instructed to try Ghandi at the earliest possible moment on the general charge of sedition. It is probable that the trial will be held before both a native judge and jury.

Old Time Magic Passes
Eighteen Year Subscriber
State Police Are Needed
Per Capita Taxes Told

By Gil A. Cowan

REMEMBER the good old days when the traveling magician's company came to town and mystified the populace of Podunk? The death of Harry Kellar in Los Angeles reminds one of the palmy days when Hermann the Great, The Fakir of Ava, Davenport Brothers and a dozen others toured the country.

His magic carried Kellar far and as a conjurer he is one of the last successful fakirs of the old school. Nowadays the glib public would rather go motoring than sit for hours watching someone do something that is known to be a trick.

Yes, nowadays the people of Glendale would rather let some salesman of stocks or can openers or something else entertain them during idle minutes.

But, as Barnum hinted, there is one born every minute, yes, every second. Barnum, himself, was too conservative to see the opportunities existing in fooling the public.

If he had been a wise man Barnum would have organized the Ku Klux or some other clan and made a million out of it. People like to be humbugged. They like to revel in honor bestowed upon them. I know, because it pleases me to hear my name called on the roll, especially the army pay roll.

It pleases other people to be among the oldest subscribers of a newspaper. Take James Conner, for instance, who runs the Glenview dairy out on Glenwood Road. He has been a subscriber for The Glendale Evening News and its predecessors for eighteen years. That's a long time in my short life.

Yesterday he told me how he first subscribed to what was called the San Fernando Valley Review, published by a man named McClure. Then J. C. Sherer bought the sheet and changed its name to The Glendale News. McClure didn't like to lose his identity with the valley so he went to Burbank and started the Burbank Review.

With the present disorders at Taff—the Ku Klux Klan and the Black Beauties both busy—there seems to be a crying need for other exercises to break a few heads without compassion.

It doesn't matter who is to blame in a strike or a "moral crusade" by clansmen, it doesn't need worry the state police who is to get the praise. His is the job to dare and to do, to settle the disturbance.

There are going to be a lot of Annapolis graduates looking for careers in a few months. With their experience in "chasing" and other exercises conducive to congeniality, there is little question but what they would make good state police.

This column might have been devoted to motoring, but with the rain motorboating would be a more interesting topic today. Closed cars certainly come in handy.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the automobile industry, which has made possible business and industrial activities on rainy days. To see the number of cars parked on the streets this morning, you would think the sun was shining bright.

The average cost to each resident in Los Angeles county will be $44.74 in taxes for the year 1921-1922, according to the statement issued today by State Controller Ray H. Riley, whose department has been busy for some time compiling data on tax burdens. Los Angeles county's total tax bill for the year 1921-1922 amounts to $43,836,669.22. Estimating the population to be nine hundred seventy-nine thousand seven hundred the per capita cost is $44.74. Glendale will pay $166,347.20 total taxes, it is added.

Indigo Dye Used by Egyptians 1,000 B. C.

LONDON—German scientists have discovered that the "navy blue" fashion of today was the vogue among the aristocracy of Egypt long before the days of Cleopatra.

Dr. Rathgen, in the German Chemical Newspaper, says a portion of an Egyptian princess's garment of the period about 1000 B. C. was submitted to a chemical analysis to test the coloring, and the presence of indigo-dye was detected.

Several feminine household gods were examined, including a Babylonian vase of glass and a finger-ring made of tin, dating back to about 1000 B. C.

It was found that the vase had been made by means of a shaped mould of clay, the fluid glass being placed on the outside. The glass was opaque.

Further examination of other articles revealed a high state of industrial art among the Babylonians.

Declares Age of Jazz Is Slowly on Decline

PORTLAND, Maine—This is the jazz age, according to Dr. Lemuel H. Murlin, of Boston University, who spoke before a large congregation at the Congress Street M. E. church.

Dr. Murlin declared that there is a jazz note on everything, including religion. He said that this would pass off and that, in fact, it was already passing off and that the world would come out of it lucky to have escaped more serious results, following the tremendous breaking-up process succeeding five years of war.

A Personal Statement In Regard to MOUNTAIN VIEW TRACT

We wish to announce to you that we are again managing and selling the lots at the Mountain View Tract in the Laurel Avenue District, and will be pleased to show you the property, what we have already accomplished, and what we intend to do. If "you are from Missouri," perhaps you will have to wait awhile longer until we show you, but if you do, I will assure you that you will have to pay for it, for when we have shown you what we are going to do, the price will be quite a large per cent higher, so why not buy now and get the benefit of the improvements? If you buy from us you can rest assured you will not be surrounded by a lot of temporary homes. Not but what the people that build the temporary homes are just as good in every way as you and I, but, from an investment standpoint or place to live, we all know that a restricted district is the place to invest. Our restrictions are not high ($2500.00) but I am personally interested in making this tract a beauty spot and a subdivision to be proud of. Come out any old time and we will give you our personal attention, and we will get acquainted and will tell you not to buy unless you are satisfied that it is a good investment.

Yours for business and pleasure,
W. H. ARMSTRONG, Manager.

Airplane Is Useful to Exterminate Pests

DAYTON, O.—At the instance of entomologists at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment station, Wooster, an airplane was used to dust a cabbage grove of 6,000 trees, which was being destroyed by caterpillars, and the experiment was such a success that a new commercial field for aviators of great possibility may be developed.

The initial experiment was conducted on the farm of Harry B. Carver, near Dayton, and an airplane from McCook Field was used for the purpose. Carver's trees had been attacked twice before by worms and was undergoing a third attack, which it was feared would wipe out the entire grove. He informed the state experts and asked for immediate help.

An army pilot was detailed to take a plane to the Carver farm, where a home-made hopper, similar to a flour-sifter, was built and attached to the fuselage of the airplane. The hopper was then loaded with one hundred pounds of arsenate of lead, and the "battle of worms" began.

The pilot took off and, choosing the windward side of the grove, soared back and forth, while his observer operated the hopper. The speed of the plane created a strong wind-current, which carried the poisonous powder to the rear of the machine in a veritable cloud.

The powder thus released was sprayed over the grove and settled on the leaves of the trees. Back and forth went the machine, landing at intervals to recharge the hopper. This process continued until six hundred pounds of the poison had been distributed over the trees.

Experts were surprised to find that the pest had been eradicated with the first treatment. The trees, which had already been almost entirely defoliated, were found to be in thriving condition, and bodies of millions of dead worms littered the ground, which it was said would prove beneficial to the trees because of the elements of fertilizer which naturally followed decomposition.

Two months later another inspection was made at the grove, and this served merely to confirm the first beliefs of the entomologists.

The grove contained six thousand trees, and the fact that each tree was thoroughly dusted convinced the experts that this method is applicable to not only orchards, but to growing crops which may be threatened with destruction.

Can't Register Unless You Have Children

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Declaring he will erect an apartment house to which the open sesame will be a little child's voice, Stul S. Klein, attorney, has purchased property at Fifty-second street and Moneta avenue.

The attorney, who is a parent, arrived here recently from Cincinnati to practice law in Los Angeles. He declares he tried for a week to find an apartment to which his child could be admitted.

In the apartment house he will build he will not let tenants register unless they have children with them, according to his plan, as outlined today.

Among other welfare matters which he intends to undertake, Klein says he will urge the state legislature to adopt a law making it an offense for landlords to refuse to rent rooms to couples with children.

Pastor Isaac to Tell of Russia Conditions

A lecture that should be of special interest to the people of Glendale, will be given Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock, at the Seventh-day Adventist church, corner of Isabel street and California avenue. Pastor Isaac will at that time tell of conditions in Russia, and he is well able to do this as he has spent many years in that country, being there during the war, and the days of revolution following it. He has just returned to America and will be able to tell many thrilling experiences—how his home was searched many times, and he and his family were ordered from place to place. He will also tell of the needs of the people there—how that many times they were glad to get even a coarse sack for clothing. And many had only meat to eat and sweet wood tea to drink. These, with many other experiences, will make it a meeting of unusual interest to all, it is predicted.

Miss Alice Farrow, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Farrow of 214 West Doran street, was hostess last night to a group of friends at an Oriental dancing party. Decorations consisted of draperies, lanterns, etc. The evening was spent in dancing, at the close of which refreshments of Japanese tea, rice cakes and chop suey were served.

NO CONFLICT!

There is no conflict between Life Insurance Companies and Banks. In fact, many Savings Banks and Trust Companies advise the people, through advertisements, how to accumulate for the payment of their Life Insurance premiums.

Dunn's and Bradstreet's Mercantile Agencies now have a question in their statement-blanks asking how much Life Insurance a business man carries. They regard it as one of the prime bases of credit.

While we build we must protect and Life Insurance is the only way. THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE.

Locals and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. John Hutton and baby, of Long Beach, are guests for the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Andree, of 462 Pioneer drive.

How much more is a cavalryman worth than an infantryman? Two cents. That is the difference in value quoted by Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Tolman at their Shop Unique, 125 West Broadway. However, the soldiers are toys for the nursery.

The members of the entertainment committee of the local Elks lodge, of which Joe Bellue is chairman, are planning a "green" dance for members and their ladies to take place on March 18. Decorations, etc., will be carried out suggestive of St. Patrick's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Russell, of 336 Riverdale drive, will entertain with a family dinner party tomorrow, in honor of Mrs. Russell's brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. LeVal Lund, who were recently married. Dr. Lund has just returned to Los Angeles from New York City, where he has been for the past two years. The guests will include Dr. and Mrs. LeVal Lund, Dr. and Mrs. George J. Lund, of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Stamp and family, of 436 West Colorado street, and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Russell and family.

Lloyd George's Power? He Admits Mistakes!

By SENATOR WILLIAM E. BORAH
United States Senator from Idaho
Written for International News Service
Copyright, 1922, International News

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Lloyd George, according to the news dispatches, is again in peril. No one will be surprised to see him escape unscathed and triumphant. In any event, whether he succeeds in this particular instance or fails, his career has been one of the most eventful in all the history of his country, a country blessed with a multitude of great names.

What is the secret of his power? His genius consists of his willingness to admit his mistakes—after all, a rare genius. He has the courage to change his program when manifestly in error. He has seen the fearful blunder of the Versailles treaty. He understands that it is this which is now holding Europe in economic chaos and demoralizing the whole continent. He, therefore, wants a change, or a revision, of the treaty.

He also recognizes the mistakes, if not the crime, of the allied and associated powers in their treatment of Russia. He understands now that the blockade of Russia after the armistice constituted one of the great wrongs of history and worked a detriment unparalleled to Europe and indirectly to the whole world. He undoubtedly believes that the time has come to recognize the present government of Russia, to bring Russia back into the family of nations, to open up trade and business with Russia, and thus take the second most important step toward the stabilization and rehabilitation of Europe—a step without which the world cannot recover and without which the world will be a poorer place.

which the bonuses and tariffs and subsidies will not bring prosperity, even to the United States.

Lloyd George, in other words, has the capacity to realize when he has been run over by events, and the courage to admit it and arrange future programs in accordance with such experiences.

The action of the allied nations towards Russia is almost incredible. It is based upon a narrow, bigoted, short-sighted policy, which, in different ways has brought on almost as much misery to the human family as the war itself.

We have appropriated millions to feed the Russian people and yet our action is helping to retard immeasurably the capacity of the Russian people to feed themselves. We convinced the program which was to prevent her recovery after the war and we are still engaged in the same policy. Our own people are paying for it, not only in the taxes which are assessed to take care of the millions, but they are paying for it in the retardation of the recovery of Europe, and thereby indirectly of our own country.

There is no such thing as peace, either physically or mentally or spiritually, in Europe with 180,000,000 people outlived and an entire continent harassed and tormented as that continent is being harassed and tormented by the Versailles treaty.

WILLIAM MALCOM SPEAKS

"All men and women who are interested in lawns, soils and fertilizers, are invited to hear William Malcom, of 210 West Palmer street, speak on these subjects tonight, at 7:30, at the Tropic Presbyterial church," stated S. H. Wilcox, of 1923 Gerdena avenue, this morning. Mr.

CLARA MIDCALF OF CITY SCHOOLS IS TAKEN BY DEATH

will be hard to fill. As a teacher she was one of the very best.

Head of Teachers' Club.
"For two years Miss Midcalf was president of the Glendale City Teachers' Club. Summer before last she was a delegate to the National Educational Convention at Salt Lake City. At the Intermediate School she had been selected by the students as treasurer for their athletic association for a number of terms. As vice-principal her special service was as adviser and counselor to the girls. To her the girls brought all their troubles. She was class teacher to last year's graduating class."

Miss Midcalf's illness may have been influenced by over work in connection with a recent "stunt show" at the Intermediate school, in the opinion of Mr. White, who remarked: "Whenever there was any entertainment to be arranged, Miss Midcalf was always in it actively."

Death was caused through inability to resist influenza on account of a weakened heart condition, first noticeable by her friends several years ago, at a school picnic in Griffith Park, when she collapsed from heat prostration.

Active in Church Work.
An active part in the work of the First Methodist church was taken by Miss Midcalf, who was leader of an energetic class of young ladies. She also sang in the choir. She was an active worker in the Women's Relief Corps.

Miss Midcalf recently was signally honored by election to the State Council of Education, where she helped represent the teachers of southern California.
Funeral arrangements have not been completed by the family with Pulliam & Kiefer, and the announcement of service will be made later.
A number of brothers and sisters survive Miss Midcalf including: Mrs. F. O. Haskell, Miss Alice Midcalf, 111 North Orange street; Mrs. H. L. Redd, 214 East Garfield street; Walter Midcalf of Glendale; Robert Midcalf, Honolulu; and George Midcalf, of Ventura.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. ZANTHA A. JOHNSON

Funeral services for Mrs. Zantha Ann Johnson, who passed away Thursday at her home, 432—Salem street, will be held at 2 o'clock, Wednesday, March 15, 1922, in the Little Church of the Flowers, according to an announcement this morning from Pulliam & Kiefer.

Kill Incurable Insane Patients, Pastor Says

WORCESTER, Mass. — Kill the hopelessly insane to make room for curable patients in public institutions, is the proposal of Rev. R. S. Winn, a member of the House Committee on Public Institutions, that has shocked many who have heard it. Winn declares himself in favor of mercifully ending the sufferings of the more violently and hopelessly insane.

He has also attracted considerable notice by his arraignment of dancing, which, he says, is responsible for the presence of many of the young women now confined in institutions for tuberculosis patients.

G. C. HILL HAS RETURNED

G. C. Hill has recently returned from a year's sojourn in St. Paul and Red Wing, Minn., where he was the guest of his father in the former city. He says the snow and blizzards in that section of the country have made him a more staunch advocate than ever of Southern California.

If Cuba had the same density of population as Porto Rico, its population would be 15,140,730.

Racial Question Now in Treaty Contest

BY J. BART CAMPBELL.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The racial question has been injected into the senate fight over the four power treaty.

Southern senators joined with those from the Pacific coast in inquiring if the pact would not place the American people on the same basis of racial and social equality as the Japanese.

Senator Simmons of North Carolina, one of the Democratic leaders and ranking minority member of the senate finance committee, said:

"I do not like the four power pact. I cannot see why it is that if we could not have a treaty in the form of the League of Nations, embracing the nations of Europe and South America as well as ourselves, why we should have such a treaty with the yellow people of Asia."

"I am in step with the purpose of the pact for the limitation of naval armament and with whatever other understandings which may promise to eliminate the causes for war in the Far East, but, in addition to the chief objection to the four power treaty which I have suggested there are many other things about it which I do not like."

"I believe that there lurks within the germs of war to a far greater extent than were ever charged against the rejected Versailles treaty."

Much significance was attached to Senator Simmons' statement, in view of the fact that he is one of those Democratic leaders in the senate who have invariably entertained independent views despite his relations with former President Woodrow Wilson.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, who still reflects Mr. Wilson's League of Nations views, declared that he had two chief objections to the four power treaty, one, that it placed the American people on a basis of social equality with the Japanese, and the other that it left wide open the problem of Japanese immigration still confronting California and other western states.

It was understood that the western question of Japanese immigration would be emphasized in a speech which Senator Hiram Johnson of California was planning to deliver in explanation of his opposition to ratification of the four power pact.

Political Party Only For Women Proposed

By EDNA HUBER CHURCH

Written for International News Service
LONDON.—A movement to organize a political party composed exclusively of women is in full swing in England with every prospect that it will be in working order by the time the next general election is held. It is possible that this party may gain control of the government but this is improbable. There are about 2,000,000 more women than men in Great Britain which gives them a powerful political advantage.

The English organization in question would be similar to the national woman's party in the United States which disregards politics on strict party lines and strives constantly for further political freedom for women. It is understood that all the women members of parliament, Viscountess Astor and Mrs. Thomas Winttingham favor the formation of a strictly feminine political organization with no men within its membership.

It is regarded as certain that if the party is formed, a bitter struggle will be waged between the moderate and extremist factions.

The aim of the party would be to put women upon an absolute equality with men in every activity of life—politics, before the courts, industry and so on.

BIG INCREASE IN BURGLARY

NEW YORK, March 11.—The growing popularity of burglary as a profession is revealed by the annual statement of the National Surety company showing that claims for burglary insurance were 51 per cent higher in 1921 than in the preceding year.

U. S. Life Too Speedy, States Lady Asquith

By HARRY F. FLORY

Written for International News Service
NEW YORK, March 11.—Margot Asquith, "grandmother of the flapper," interviewed and written about in a score of cities in the United States and Canada, is not satisfied just to read about herself in American newspapers, she said. She is eager for news from home—England.

"I am missing a political crisis in England," she said, "because your papers don't give enough information to keep me in touch with the situation."

"Your newspapers are all right in the way they have treated me, but the 'top' of them is abominable. I never read the first sheet, which is usually filled with murders and suicides. Charlie Chaplin's pants or Gary Pickford's dogs. They screech and bellow—the front pages, not the backs."

Lady Asquith gave her views on international affairs, the British cabinet crisis, American prohibition, American cities and American traits in general.

"There will be an election in May undoubtedly," she said. "Lloyd George may weather the storm, but the coalition is doomed, there is no doubt about that."

In forceful language Margot characterized the Versailles peace conference as "fruitless"; the Cannes conference as "fatal."

"Your Washington conference was the conference," she declared. "That conference accomplished something."

American life is too fast and furious for her English sensibilities to grasp, Lady Asquith said.

To America, prohibition raised a warning finger and she said she had told President Harding what she thought about it.

"At balls and parties in England the boys and girls don't get this much drunk," she said, holding two fingers of her right hand very close together.

"When I first came over I thought I would admire prohibition, but now I have seen how it works, I think it is abominable."

Stop and Shop Has An Attractive Display

If the remarks of the window wishers are any indication of prospective business for the Stop and Shop, which opened its doors to the public today at 223 North Brand, the new store is bound to be a success. All last evening when the weather was more clement than it has been today, window shoppers gathered in front of the store to view the attractive display of women's and children's ready to wear garments. There are some very attractive models of latest designs for women and some very unusual and fetching frocks for the kiddies. Dame Nature, or whoever it is that handed out the heavy showers to Glendale today, prevented the general public from attending the opening in large numbers.

BILL CAUSES OPPOSITION

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11.—Strenuous opposition to the bill creating nineteen additional posts in the federal judiciary developed today. It was conceded by the supporters of the measure that only the full support of the administration can bring about its passage. The real fight against the bill, according to indications today, will be centered on the floor of the senate next week.

Republican senators whose states were ignored in the apportionment of the new judgeships are uniting in opposing the bill, while numerous democrats have signified their intention of attacking the bill on the floor.

PAVING LAST LINK OF HIGHWAY TO SAN DIEGO

Good News Is Announced by Auto Club Regarding the Seashore Drive

Every auto owner in this part of the state who has occasion to stray from his own fireside, at some time or other travels the coast route. Good news is here from those who do.

According to an announcement just made by the touring bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California preparations are under way for the paving of the mud bog on the coast highway near San Diego.

This has long been a sore spot on an otherwise pleasant tour along the ocean for thousands of eastern visitors—almost as bad, it is pointed out, as the famous corrugated highway which at one time was remedied by Oceanide on the same route.

Stirred to Action

Numerous complaints of motorists throughout the entire southern part of the state, in behalf of the eastern tourists to the coast, apparently have had some effect, for the Auto club states that La Jolla and San Diego are both stirring themselves to action to complete the paving of this last important link on the coast highway which is of greater importance than is commonly supposed.

Various municipalities throughout southern California are also waking up to the fact that some road improvement can be carried out to advantage within their own bailiwicks, according to the Auto club, and a general clean-up of numerous small stretches of bad highway which mar some otherwise perfect tours is going into effect this spring.

Never before in the history of California has this entire section occupied such an important position as host to eastern motoring visitors, and it is indicated that the various counties are coming to realize this fact in the movement to improve local highway conditions.

Satisfaction

Neither long words nor big type can express the real measure of satisfaction that Studebaker owners are getting from the performance of their cars.

Technical descriptions of the many progressive engineering ideas incorporated in the 1922 models are insufficient, and glowing words, pictures or artists' drawings fall short of telling the complete story.

One must take the wheel or at least ride in one of the 1922 models to appreciate the power, comfort, and the ease of handling that come with a perfect steering gear, gears that shift in a whisper and instant response to throttle or brakes.

We cordially invite you to let the 1922 Studebaker tell you its own story in its own way, with you at the wheel.

Only in this way can you get the correct standard by which to judge fine motor car performance.

"A SAFE PLACE TO BUY A USED CAR"

Mrs. Sarah I. Tabor, 83, Goes to Poorhouse

PAWPAW, Mich., March 11.—Broken in health and penniless, Mrs. Sarah I. Tabor, 83, who two years ago gained nation-wide notoriety when she was arrested for the murder of her daughter, Maude Tabor, will be committed Monday to the Van Buren county infirmary. The body of Maude Tabor, a school teacher, was found in a "hoax chest" in the basement of the Tabor home. The mother later was arrested in California and brought here, charged with the slaying. The charges eventually were dismissed.

Until the revelations connected with the finding of her daughter's body, Mrs. Tabor was believed to possess a comfortable fortune, left her by her husband, a prosperous lawyer. Financial reverses attended her other troubles, however, and nearly all of her property was taken through mortgage foreclosures.

For several months Mrs. Tabor and another daughter have been living in extreme penury in a dilapidated shack. Ten days ago they were forced to appeal to the county authorities for aid and commitment to the infirmary was ordered.

Outbreak in India May Follow Arrest

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The arrest of Ghandi, the Indian non-cooperationist leader, by the British, will result in the outbreak of the long smoldering rebellion in India, it was predicted here today by Sallendran Ghose, head of the Indian self-government mission in this country.

"The arrest of Ghandi will be followed immediately," Ghose said, "by a general cartel or stoppage of all business, and will include a strike of all domestic servants employed by the British."

The arrest of Ghandi will not handicap the progress of India's march toward self-government, Ghose said. Nationalist leaders completed plans a month ago, he said, for carrying on without their leader.

Advices to the Indian commission today said that cartels had begun to take form in Bombay, Allahabad (Ghandi's home town), Allahabad, Lahore, Amritsar, Madras, Amballa and Calcutta.

Sikh and Punjab troops are reported to have deserted.

England Disappointed Over U. S. Decision

By DAVID M. CHURCH
Written for International News Service
LONDON, March 11.—Keen disappointment was expressed in official circles over the refusal of the United States to participate actively in the international conference at Genoa next month. The attitude of the United States was not completely unexpected, however. Premier Lloyd George is hopeful that the American government will find it possible to approve some of the decisions of the conference.

Downing street officials expressed surprise over the reasons given by the American state department for not participating in the conference. They declared the conference had been called to adjust conditions of which the United States complained. It was denied that there was any political significance to the meeting.

For the time being foreign affairs are overshadowing the political crisis resulting from the conflict between Premier Lloyd George and the Tory "die hards" in the coalition party. The premier's health has improved and he is attending to his official duties.

Transfers of Service

The following requests for transfer of light and water service are on file in the public service department at the city hall: C. C. Krebs, 135 North Cedar street to Pasadena; B. F. Belen, 607 North Jackson street to Tujunga; M. P. Tinkler, 214-A East Broadway, 309 North Cedar street.

The following are requests for installation of meters: H. J. Hasbach, 1421 North San Fernando Road; W. F. White, 650 West Wilson avenue; F. E. Reeves, 1148 Allen street; O. L. Estes, 123 West Acacia street; A. M. Blackman, 646 West Doran street.

The following wish service: H. E. Albrow, 125 1/2 North Brand boulevard; D. E. Plier, 112 West Garfield street; E. J. Newman, 237 North Cedar street; Jesse C. Smith, 131 West Acacia street; Mrs. E. Z. Johnson, 509 East Windsor Road.

Along Auto Row

Carburetor Buick Feature

The new carburetor automatic heat control is one of the big features of the new Buick, according to Ray Galvin of Tanner & Hall, Ltd., 237 South Brand boulevard. "This is standard equipment on 1922 models, both fours and sixes," declared Mr. Galvin. "It makes the motor run just as smoothly in cold as in summer weather."

Inspects 40-Acre Ranch

T. R. Wilson of the Broadway garage has gone to Fresno via automobile to inspect a 40-acre ranch, which he is contemplating acquiring.

Jack Back on the Job

Jack St. Clair, proprietor of the Club garage at 107 East Colorado street and "official fixer" for the Maxwell, is back on the job again, following an attack of the flu at his home, 116 East Chestnut street. He reports that his business is increasing constantly and that he has his hands full taking care of those who are familiar with his workmanship.

Demarest Now at Beach

E. P. Demarest, former manager of the Auto Tire company's store at 211 South Brand boulevard, is now temporarily managing a store in Long Beach, according to R. B. Tapp, present manager of the Glendale store.

Chemical Reaction

A storage battery does not store electricity, but makes it by chemical reaction, according to A. H. Wishart, manager of the Westinghouse Service station at 233 South Brand boulevard. "This chemical reaction goes on when the battery is not in use," remarked Mr. Wishart. "If the battery has been laid up for more than four weeks, it should be charged each month or put into storage. Otherwise, it is liable to be ruined. In hot weather a battery has less work to do and will, therefore, more readily retain its charge."

Jazz Music Blamed in Antics of Auto Truck

UXBRIDGE, Mass.—An auto truck belonging to Avak Atamian could not resist the strains of a jazz record and "shimmied" into a stone wall on Granite street.

Atamian became excited in rounding a curve when his son, who was holding a victrola in the rear of the truck, put on a real jazzy record. He lost control of the truck, and it finally rested against the stone wall. The victrola was taken to a repair shop. Father and son were shaken up.

In Times Like These

—With houses scarce and rents high, is when you should start applying the money you are now investing in rent receipts towards buying a home of your own.

—Desirable homes, the kind you would buy or build are renting today for more money than your payments would amount to if you were paying out for a home that would some day be your very own.

—APPRECIATING THIS it is important, indeed, that men and women of limited incomes take advantage of present real estate opportunities, determine in what part of the city they would prefer making their future home, and then arrange to buy the lot, and after you have obligated yourself to meeting the payments you will be happily surprised to see just how easily it is to master the habit of saving.

—You must not deceive yourself with the thoughts that you cannot afford to buy a lot and build a home; others who are less fortunate have made home ownership a reality and are today enjoying the happiness, contentment and protection of their own homes.

—It is a privilege to be a Home Owner, and an honor to be able to boast of Home Ownership, and it is within the reach of all who are determined.

—Have you ever stopped to realize that you who rent pay for a home every ten years and still allow someone else to retain ownership? Here's what your rent amounts to, compounded semi-annually at 6 per cent, paid the first of each month:

AT $30.00 A MONTH

5 Years.....	$2,099.61
10 Years.....	4,021.30
15 Years.....	8,713.43

AT $40.00 A MONTH

5 Years.....	$ 2,799.48
10 Years.....	6,561.74
15 Years.....	11,617.91

AT $50.00 A MONTH

5 Years.....	$ 3,499.35
10 Years.....	8,202.12
15 Years.....	14,522.39

AT $60 A MONTH

5 Years.....	$ 4,199.22
10 Years.....	9,842.61
15 Years.....	14,426.87

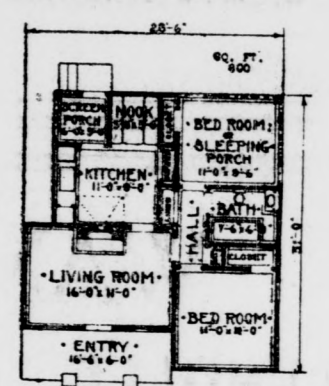

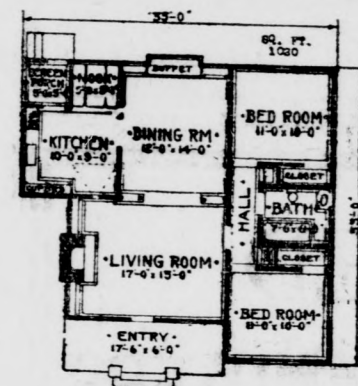

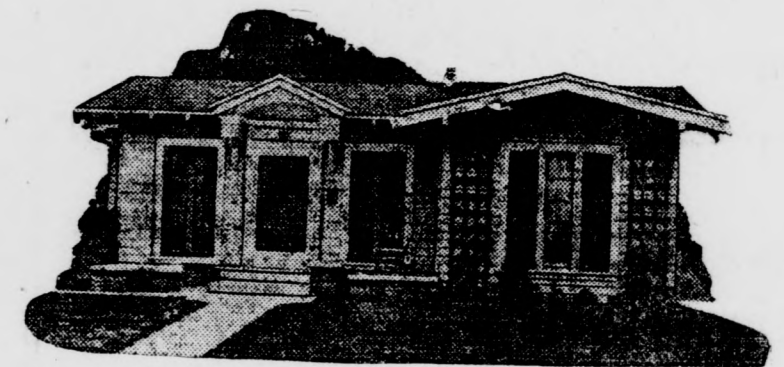

—You had no idea your rent dollars multiplied into such staggering figures, did you? Well, here's a real practical suggestion: Apply your rent money towards buying a home of your own and in a few short years, instead of being a collector of rent receipts, you will be a bona fide home owner.

Stern parents are usually that way, not from conviction; it's because they can't help it. Only one-third of the world's population has reclaimed more than 1,000,000 acres of land from the sea. The earth's total land area is 33,123,171,200 acres, of which forests cover 8,097,319,827 acres.

Beautiful Forest Lawn Memorial Park "AMONG THE HILLS"

"I like that ancient Saxon phrase which calls the burial ground God's Acre. It is just; It consecrates each grave within its walls, And breathes a benison o'er the sleeping dust." —Longfellow.

—A glimpse into Forest Lawn Conservatories. These conservatories and their adjoining gardens cover several acres and are filled with rare plants and exquisite flowers. They are maintained for the purpose of beautifying the cemetery, The Little Church of the Flowers and the Mausoleum, and offer a convenient service to those friends and relatives who desire to decorate the resting places of their loved ones.

—Forest Lawn is renowned throughout Southern California for its beauty and wondrous possibilities as one of the finest burial parks in the country.

Visit Forest Lawn Park and see for yourself its advantages. Do not wait until some loved one is called away, but select your lot while all are well and happy.

General Dickman Now Rides in Maxwell for Easy Riding Qualities

"That the motor as used in the great war as a means of land and air transportation, has completely revolutionized field operations, effecting even greater change than occurred when Morse telegraphy was introduced on the battlefield, is a matter of record," states Lyman P. Clark, of the Glendale Motor Car company, local Maxwell dealers.

"But the automobile has also been an influence in altering other and less serious phases of army curriculum."

There was a time not far back when every soldier revelled in the discomforts of a McClellan saddle. Rough riding was his pastime.

"But today the army officer seeks comfort in his means of transportation. The war made the motor his necessity and he found no sport in 'breaking' a rough riding automobile. He demands comfort along with reliable service and high grade motor car performance."

"That is why the Maxwell Motor Corporation is justly proud in having recently delivered a new Maxwell sedan to General Joseph T. Dickman, (U. S. A., retired), who served in France as major general, and more recently commanded the Southern Department."

A total of 66,793 canaries were imported into the United States during the past fiscal year.

Pennsylvania Co-Eds Bar Dates With Men

PHILADELPHIA—Co-eds at the University of Pennsylvania have banned "insignificant man" from their social activities by the formation of a "Dateless Club." The object of the organization is to bar "mere man" from the society of its members on the proverbial Wednesday and Saturday "date nights."

Admission to the organization can be obtained only by the recommendation of a member and the passing of a severe cross-examination. Under oath the applicant must answer questions aimed to ferret out her attitude toward the masculine sex in general.

COMRADES AND FELLOW CITIZENS:

Are you sincerely anxious to be part of a really great service?

Do you honestly want to do a tremendous thing for God and home and country?

Would it make you very happy to reach thousands of people every day in an eloquent plea for the constitution and the flag?

You know the great issue in California and in the United States is:

Patriotism versus Treason.

Loyalty versus Anarchy.

The Constitution versus Whiskey and Beer.

It would be an insult to ask you which side you are on. For of course you are for Patriotism and Loyalty, the Constitution and the Flag.

And you know a majority of the voters of this state and nation would be opposed to treason and lawlessness if only they could be made to see the truth.

But you say they won't listen to speakers, they won't read literature, they do not seem to want to stop and think.

What agency can we use to attract their attention and arrest their thought and arouse them to action?

Well, listen, friends. In the face of the above situation we know there is one great agency that will reach them. And facts and figures prove it is the most powerful and attractive drawing force in the world. Nobody doubts that. It is the most tremendous power in our contemporary life.

NAMELY, THE MOTION PICTURE.

Millions of people that cannot be reached by any other means flock to see motion pictures. Eighty-five per cent of all our knowledge comes through the eye, and what we learn through the eye we remember.

People say "in one ear and out the other," but whoever heard anybody say "in one eye and out the other?"

Bone Dry Federation has decided with your help to capture and use this great force in an appeal to teach reverence for the Constitution and respect for law. We have secured the rights to the greatest story of the day dealing with this vital question—eloquent in its message, dramatic in its appeal, gripping in its thrilling portrayal of present day conditions. Preachers, laymen, statesmen, lawyers, men and women, expert motion picture people unanimously declare it to be the message needed for this campaign. Thousands of churches, community centers, school houses and motion picture houses are waiting for it. The estimated cost of making this great picture is

TWENTY-FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS.

We want you to enjoy the privilege of being part of this great work.

We know you will be happy in accepting this opportunity of doing the thing you have wanted to help do so long. Namely, carry a great message of loyalty to hundreds of thousands of people.

TWELVE THOUSAND DOLLARS have been subscribed, but on the condition that we raise TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS by popular subscription by April 1st, 1922.

Hence this earnest appeal to you.

We want you to be one of the five hundred people to send in their check for TEN DOLLARS for this great work at once. We know that ten dollars is not very much for one person to give, but if we can only get five hundred of them we can surely make this TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS by April 1st, because there is some who will give one hundred dollars and some fifty dollars, and many, many hundreds who will give five dollars each.

Send in your check and become part of this great work, and tell your friends about it, please, because this is imperative. All monies given for this special work will be deposited in a special fund. Not one dollar of it will be used until the whole TEN THOUSAND is raised.

We are depending on you for help. Miss Alice H. Frank and Mr. Harry A. James, 1558 E. Wilson Avenue, Phone Glendale 747. San Fernando Valley representatives.

HUGE SUM FOR REFUNDS

WASHINGTON, March 11.—President Harding has recommended to congress the appropriation of $27,468,000 for the refunding of taxes illegally collected by the internal revenue bureau. The president's request was embodied in estimates which he submitted for the supplemental deficiency appropriation bill for the fiscal year 1923.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 11.

"The best looking bunch of rookies the Brooklyn ball club ever took north."

Chas. H. Ebbets speaking. Nothing new about that. Charles H. Ebbets often. He is watching the doubtful dodgers in action.

"For forty years," he declares with unblinking candor, "I have been watching ball clubs train under my eye, but never have I seen such a promising lot of recruits."

Conversation and Mr. Ebbets are not total strangers. We grant you. He has been, in fact, a free talker, which may be described as a conversational half-brother of the vers libre, yet he speaks now as the president of a ball club that has seen many great ball players come and go, first as an obscure rookie, then as an acclaimed star. Few of its luminaries have been bought ready made. It is a club that rolls its own as the saying goes.

Its list of home-made ball players is impressive. Consider, for example, Nap Rucker, one of the greatest left-hand pitchers of all time; Zach Wheat, one of the league's leading outfielders for some years, and Jake Daubert, a rival of Hal Chase at first base in his early career. Other Brooklyn products include Hi Meyers, outfielder; Jimmy Johnston, third baseman; Sherrod Smith, left-hand pitcher; George Cuyshaw, second baseman, and Casey Stengel, outfielder. Burleigh Grimes, pretty generally considered the best right-hander in the National league, might also be said to have bloomed under the kindly patronage of the benign squire. Burleigh was tossed in for good measure in a Brooklyn-

Pittsburg trade and never showed anything but good intentions until he began to labor in the vineyard of the dodgers.

Without preamble, the squire will tell you that Burt Griffith, obtained from New Orleans, is one of the best outfield prospects of a generation.

Burt seems to have a habit of smacking the ball with enthusiasm and a baseball bat. Also, he is somewhat of a hurried person on the base paths, having stolen more than fifty bases in the Southern Association last year.

Andy High, an infielder who hit .327 with Memphis in 1921, is another young man "who kindles a gleam in the squire's wintry eye. They are regarded as the best prospects in the camp."

Sam Crane, ex-Red, ex-Mackman, ex-Senator, and ex-Everything, is expected to settle down long enough to play shortstop, Olson thus being shifted to second base. That takes care of the infield. The pitchers are plentiful, also good, and Wheat, Myers and either of the Griffiths, Tom or Bert, will complete the outfit.

Behind the bat Mr. Ebbets has taken unto himself Barney Hurling and Hank de Berry and the chances are that Barney and Hank will lift the burden right off the veteran shoulders of Otto Miller. The recruit pitchers are many and promising, the more prominent being Ray Gordinier, a right-hander from Butte, Harry Schriver, so tall that the boys think he is dropping them down from the third floor; Clarence Brown, Dazzy Vance, Arthur Decatur, Roy Auer and Irvan Dell, right handers, and Charley Hackett, Sam Post and Bill Bishop, left handers.

An examination of world's records, as they have been broken since 1888, clearly shows that the standards have been such that it has taken a remarkable athlete to equal or break the marks and that the breaking of these marks has been very spasmodic.

This is particularly true in the case of running from 100 yards, through the various distances up to ten miles. From 1888 to date is a period of thirty-four years, and in that time the hundred yards, quarter mile, two mile and ten miles have only been broken twice. The farlong, the half mile, and five mile have only been broken three times, and the one mile has been the most pliable of the running events, having been broken four times. In practically all these events runners have "equalled" the existing record and this is particularly so in the hundred yards, when the record was 9.45 seconds, when no less than nine men equalled that time. Since the mark of 13.5 was set in 1706 by Dan Kelly, only Howard Drew and Paddock have equalled it, but never beaten it.

A comparison of breaking track marks with the breaking of field event marks shows a remarkable fact that nearly all field events have been broken twice, thrice and even four times more than track events. For instance, in the same period of time, from 1888, to date, the hammer throw record has been broken no less than eleven times, the pole vault ten times, the sixteen pound shot eight times, and the broad jump seven times. Of the field events, the hammer throw has been the hardest of all marks to break, and it has only been raised three times in thirty-four years.

From this it would appear that those events in which a man's legs play the most prominent part, are harder to break records in than the events in which a man's arms are the principal factor. In the broad jump, however, we find the exception to the rule. A man's legs are the principal factor in this event, yet the broad jump has been broken seven times. On the other hand the pole vault and jump requires the legs for propulsion, and yet this event in a measure something like the broad jump, we find has been broken only three times, or on a par with sprints.

All the events which require the arms for record breaking purposes have been broken repeatedly. The hammer throw as mentioned before, eleven times; the pole vault ten times, and so forth. In the pole vault we get the combination of arms and legs, yet it is the arms in the final analysis that have to be depended on to attain the final effort.

The discuss and javelin events are comparatively modern, having been inaugurated in the record books in 1897 and 1908, and yet here again where the arms are the necessary factor, we find the former having been broken eight times and the javelin five times.

The return of Jack Merchant, one of the best track and field athletes produced by the University of California, will add much strength to the Bruin organization that goes East this summer to compete in the National Intercollegiate meet to defend the trophy won last year. Merchant won the hammer throw in 1920, at the I. C. A. A. A. Last year he registered in the Agricultural college at Davis, but is again back at the Berkeley campus. Merchant also is handy with the javelin, is good at the broad jump, and can fill into other places in the event his services are required, being an all round athlete.

and California can reciprocate the courtesy some other year.

It must become more and more apparent to the parent body in golf, that the East cannot always have a monopoly of all championship events. The game in the far west is growing by leaps and bounds. There is one thing, however, that must be taken into consideration, and that is the Pacific Coast does not as yet figure high in players of national championship calibre. It has not yet the same argument as the east. California having produced two national champions in recent years in Maurice McLoughlin, and William Johnston. At that there is nothing on foot in the way of bringing a tennis championship to the coast. In view of this, golfers may have to exercise patience. These things work very slowly, but like the well known mills of the gods, they work surely.

Bob Simpson, professional golfer at the Coronado country club (California) who recently won the Southern California open championship, is likely to be seen in many of the more important fixtures to be played this year in various sections of the country. Simpson is considered to be the champion long distance driver of his state. It is his contention that a pro who is giving lessons even though making daily practice rounds over the course, is naturally slowed up in his own play.

Filipino Quartet of Native Instrumentalists Headlines Vaudeville

The road show vaudeville at the T. D. & L. theatre today, is made up of exceptionally good program of variety acts, and the feature film, "The Last Payment," with Pola Negri.

Marcello's Filipino Quartet of native instrumentalists, assisted by Miss Roland, singer, is the star act of the bill. Like the Hawaiian players who have appeared at the T. 1922 BETTER YEAR THAN EXPECTED, WILLYS FINDS

Local Dealer Is Encouraged by Overland President's Business Prediction

The steady demand for Willys-Knights and Overlands has caused the factory schedules to be greatly increased, according to George T. Smith of 228 South Brand boulevard, local distributor.

"There is evidence that 1922 will be a better year than indications of a few months ago," remarked Mr. Smith. He has just received the following information from John N. Willys, who was in Los Angeles this week:

"We had a strong revival of buying in September and then had the best October record in the history of the company; November and December were also very strong months. At the beginning of December we were forced to increase production 50 per cent in order to get out all the cars needed for the orders calling for immediate shipment.

Increase Output
"Our car building schedules for 1922 call for a big increase in production in February and a force of possibly 12,000 in March.

"Our shipments in November last were 400 per cent more than those of November, 1920. We shipped four times the number of cars in the first week of December that we did in the entire month of December, 1920.

"The great comeback from the days of slackened business scored at Willys-Overland is due to the hundreds of thousands of enthusiastic owners of our cars and to the fact that we were able during the dull days to work out various savings in manufacturing and sales methods.

"Because of the great advances in manufacturing methods we can now produce 2.55 cars with the same number of men used in the old days to produce one car. In our sales plan we have eliminated to a great degree our distributor organization and are contracting with dealers direct for the year 1922.

"This means that for the most part Willys-Overland dealers will have direct contact with the factory and will be in better position than ever before to give prompt and satisfactory service. Moreover, the new plan brings a saving of much of the middleman's profit in the sale of our product and has permitted us to make sharp reductions in price. The Overland today is selling at a reduction of 43 per cent below its war price.

"Business is growing better daily with Overland. The year 1922, according to orders received from dealers, should see us producing twice the number of cars we made in 1921. The increase in the sale of Willys-Knight cars, as compared with the Overland line, has been very marked, indeed, showing that the motor buying public appreciate a good car at a right price."

Auto Club News

Motorists who place their new license plates in an improper manner on their cars are going to be liable to arrest in the near future, according to a warning just issued by the safety bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

There is a right and wrong way to mount the plates, and those following the wrong method are going to get themselves into a pack of trouble, according to the warning.

Do not allow the license plate to be obscured in any manner, says the Auto club advice. For instance, be careful that the front bumper does not hide the plate. This is a common occurrence and places the motorist in a ticklish position with the law.

Do not allow the license plate to become dirty or defaced so that it cannot be readily observed.

Do not let the spare tire conceal any part of the plate.

Be sure that the rear light of the car shines fully upon the license plate. This is important, warns the club, through its safety bureau.

Crank handles often obscure a portion of the license number and this must be guarded against.

Remember that the license plate has to be sixteen inches above the surface of the road.

Do not allow the extra tire rack to conceal any part of the plate.

For any of these violations the motorist is liable to immediate arrest. According to word received by the Auto club, all city, county and state police officers will be watching out from now on for these various evasions of the law. Look over your license plates now, Mr. Motorist, and avoid trouble.

Public May Not Get to See Harvard Game

CAMBRIDGE.—What is regarded as the first official intimation that the public will be excluded or discouraged from attending Harvard gridiron contests is contained in President A. Lawrence Lowell's annual report to the board of overseers. Rumors were current following various hostile demonstrations at games last year that the public would henceforth be barred.

While avoiding any direct statement on the matter, President Lowell questions the advisability of making the annual football clashes a big public spectacle.

President Lowell's report also practically makes it plain the Harvard squad will make no trip to a Western college. He says such a tour would interfere too seriously with studies.

Glendale Mesa Tract Brings F. W. Spinney Family to This City

Hayward & McCartney's Glendale Mesa sub-division at Dryden street and Pacific avenue, promises to be one of the most successful tracts placed on the market during this era of rapid expansion and development.

"There are several factors to substantiate this statement," declared E. P. Hayward, of 142 South Brand boulevard yesterday. "Although it has been on the market only one week, already permits have been taken out for four first-class residences by private individuals, who are not building their own homes.

"The building restrictions are high enough to insure a beautiful street, no temporary houses being allowed, and yet not so high as to stand in the way of development.

"Another encouraging feature for this subdivision and for real estate conditions in general, is the fact that 70 per cent of the lots sold have been sold for all cash, indicating a strong demand for well located property at the right prices. It is singular that not a single lot has been sold for speculation.

"It may be that the fact that this subdivision is the closest to the center of town, has attracted the best class of buyers, but at least it shows a healthy condition.

"Through this tract a new family has been added to Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Spinney, of Detroit, came to Los Angeles about a week ago, and before settling permanently wanted to look over the much heralded Glendale. After being here only a few hours, they bought one of the choice lots in the Glendale Mesa tract, and let a contract for a Spanish home modeled after the style which has made Windsor Square so popular."

Only Five More Days to File Income Tax Reports, Experts Say

Masters & Egan, income tax consultants, of 106-A East Broadway, draw attention to the short period of time remaining in which to file income tax returns. All returns must be filed and in the collector's office on or before March 15, the law being very specific on this point.

In the instance of making a false or fraudulent return a fine not exceeding $10,000 may be assessed, or not exceeding one year's imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court, and in addition, fifty per centum of the tax evaded.

For failing to make a return on time a fine not more than $1,000 and in addition twenty-five per centum of the tax. For failing to pay tax when due, or understatement of tax through negligence, etc., the penalty is 5 per cent of the tax due, plus interest at the rate of 1 per centum per month during the period in which it remains unpaid.

Invites Realty Dealers to Act As Salesmen

Something original in the way of real estate sales will be staged Sunday by John Sherrod Harris, owner of Annandale Country club estates on Colorado boulevard between Glendale and Pasadena in Eagle Rock vicinity. He invites real estate dealers and salesmen to go there and act as his tract salesmen, thus building a subdivision organization to handle this exclusive residential property in the shortest possible time, he believes.

Germany Needs Billions Credit, Expert Asserts

BERLIN—Given a credit of $4,000,000,000, Germany will be able to reconstruct her commerce and industry and pay her debts to the Allies, declared the German economist Parvus in a comprehensive article published by the Vorwarts.

Parvus, whose real name is Helphand, is one of the best known German economists. He was one of the economic experts of the German delegation at the peace conference of Brest-Litovsk, and was frequently sent by the Kaiser's government on foreign missions.

"In order to furnish the necessary security for this loan," said Parvus, "German state monopolies and the big business interests must organize themselves together into a mutual credit association. Such a credit association would naturally have to face severe attacks from the money lenders. Its properties and going enterprises will cover many times over the figure of the loan asked, and they would also provide for the interest payments."

"The $4,000,000,000 credit should be used, before anything else, to constitute a reserve for the German payments to the Allies, in so far as they could not be met by the current revenues of the Reich. Once these payments are protected, then we could lay plans for the balancing of the budget and reform of the monetary system."

"A part of the credit should immediately go for the reconstruction of the state monopolies and private industrial plants."

"The credit for the reconstruction of the state monopolies and private industry need not all be in money. A considerable part may be constituted in goods."

"A part of the gold loan which is to protect the payments to the Allies need not be paid out at all. It can be written up on the books as a loan, but will actually be in the nature of a moratorium."

Instead of the $4,000,000,000 loan an Allied moratorium for the same amount would serve the purpose, in the opinion of Parvus.

"The problem would then become smaller and could be solved by simpler methods. In that case we will have to enact the mutual credit association by statute and secure the necessary capital for internal reconstruction as a purely national project. We shall arrive at the same result by a different road."

Underwood faced another severe test of his leadership today when he delivered a carefully prepared speech in an effort to meet the storm of criticism directed against the four power pact by an increasing number of his Democratic colleagues.

Only a majority vote is necessary to reject a reservation proposed to a treaty under the senate rules, and Senator Lodge purposes to bring about the defeat of all or any reservations except the Harding-Breage "no alliance" reservation.

He and Senator Underwood are clinging to their predictions that the treaty will be ratified despite the announced intention of many Democratic senators to vote against it, unless reservations favored by them are attached to it.

RELIGION HOPE FOR UNREST PROBLEMS, SAYS SPEAKER

Christabel Pankhurst, Famous
Suffragette of England,
Gives Address Here

can business man does, and in other countries great interest is being taken to see what she will achieve in this important field, especially important in a country which is now in the making, with many resources still undeveloped. Especially in California, the business women will have her opportunity, a most open field in which she can show how she can increase the prosperity of this already prosperous state.

"Relative to the suffrage question, in my own home life I had been brought up amidst the spirit of utmost freedom and equality. Both my mother and father were in favor of suffrage. Even though I had this freedom there were others who did not, and this aroused my resentment. The struggle had been going on among the women for over fifty years, trying to get recognition and the vote."

Miss Pankhurst then told of the terrific obstacles which had to be overcome, and also of the beginning of militancy, she said:

"During the war the suffragettes declared a truce and helped their country. At the close of the war, whether out of gratitude or because the men thought that the pre-war militancy of the suffragettes might be increased and more drastic measures taken, of their own volition they granted the women the vote, with some restrictions. Since then they have been favored with other privileges in connection with the ballot. The trouble was that England being a conservative country the men were not willing to try new things. The American man cares more for business than politics and the English man cares more for politics than business. Perhaps it was that he feared the women would crowd him out from one of their favorite pursuits that they did not give women the ballot sooner. The women of America have never had any real opposition from the men when they wanted any measure, platform or reform. This is a new country, and the men and women are pioneers together and have to take their share in building up this grand new country."

Vote as Economic Weapon

"The vote is of great interest as an economic weapon, and is of tremendous importance to the business and professional women, who are now coming into their own. Before the vote there was not any solidarity among women. The women's economic position in the business and professional world has been built up owing to the sisterly feeling that exists among women, and that sense of co-operation. If women give you the same service, pay them as well as you pay a man. The vote has emancipated the women intellectually and given her the courage to see and do what she believes to be true and right."

Another problem and question discussed by Miss Pankhurst in her lecture was the impossibility of having a great world state, or super-state, with each nation being a unit. She stated:

"No two people or any one nation can agree. How would it be possible for all the different nations to decide on any one policy and especially one leader?"

"We are not sufficient to ourselves and as human beings cannot work out our own salvation. One great thing it is possible to be doing at the present time and that is to be looking out for a greater and more reliable solution. This is only to be found in religion and all hopes of real progress must be placed upon the greatest and more distinct revelation of divine guidance."

The wit which interspersed the more serious parts of Miss Pankhurst's lecture and her wonderful ease of delivery made her talk most delightful. Especially pleasing were her buoyancy and magnetism.

Honor Guest at Tea

A group of the business and professional women and representatives of the various women's civic organizations of Glendale greeted Miss Pankhurst with a social tea at the Business Women's Club rooms in the afternoon, following her lecture in Los Angeles.

Mrs. E. Williams, chairman of the rest room committee, was in charge of the tea and was assisted by Miss Clara Stevens, clubroom hostess, Dr. P. S. Rittenhouse and Mrs. Peggy Warner. Dr. Paine Jackson, was chairman of the reception committee. Miss Pankhurst congratulated those present on the cheerful rest rooms which have been established by this newly-organized club.

Decorations of sweet peas and freesias, which had been sent by Mrs. E. P. Beck, were used in the dining room, and bowls of yellow acacias in the living room.

Those present included Miss Christabel Pankhurst, Mrs. Margaret Biggs, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. John Robert White, Mrs. Jack Thomas, Mrs. Mabel Judd, Dr. Paine Jackson, Mrs. Peggy Warner, Dr. Pearl Rittenhouse, Mrs. E. Williams, Mrs. P. E. Maxwell, Miss Corinne Orff, Mrs. E. B. Wyman, Miss Gertrude Gibbs, Miss Alma Geiger, Miss Clara Stevens and Dr. Jessie Russell.

Miss Ethel Preston is general chairman of the rest room finance committee, which planned this series of three entertainments for the purpose of raising money to further the project of the newly-established rest room and to finance same. Tickets were in charge of Miss Myrtle Knapp, Mrs. M. P. Moberly and Mrs. E. P. Beck.

F. W. McClellan Tells of Workmanship on New Oakland Model

The new model Oakland is an exceptionally fine car, according to F. W. McClellan of Green & McClellan, 115 West Harvard street, who yesterday discussed some of its notable features.

"The new model is a much superior running car," stated Mr. McClellan, "but the most radical change is in the body, which is of an entirely different design."

Wood has replaced iron in the construction of a large part of the body. The sills and frame are of seasoned oak, as is the front of the cowl, also. The back of the front seat is leather over wood. The dash board is walnut which is very substantial, looks well and takes a fine polish.

"The use of wood increases the value of the car," declared Mr. McClellan. "Wood is much more expensive than iron, and there is more workmanship in the new body than ever before."

"Wood makes a much more durable body, also. Metal will crystallize following a certain number of shocks. This makes the screws of the body and braces become loose. Wood has a certain amount of spring and resiliency in it, and this will not occur."

"The weight of the wood and metal frame is about the same, and in case the frame has a covering of metal which is the case of the new model, receives an exceptionally high polish."

Annual Economy Run to Be Held in May

Automobile dealers and enthusiasts all over the state are evincing considerable interest over preparations that have already been made for the seventh annual economy run from Los Angeles to Camp Curry, in the Yosemite Valley.

This event is commencing to assume a national hue as some very notable results have been attained by machines participating in it in the past few years. Mrs. David Curry and her assistant managers, R. T. Williams and Don Tresidder, have made a canvass of the state in an effort to judge the interest in this year's event which will take place in May.

The Los Angeles-to-Camp Curry economy run is planned for the purpose of raising approximately the amount of gasoline, lubricating oil and cooling water consumed under normal touring conditions over the different roads of the state. It is said that as far east as points on the Atlantic coast automobile men have kept tab of results attained in the Camp Curry run.

Last year twenty-one competing cars took part in the run from Los Angeles, in addition to half again as many cars conveying members of the press and officials, while a score or more of cars from the cities adjoining San Francisco joined the Angeleño contingent at their formal gathering in Camp Curry. The Bay City Store usually make the trip into the Yosemite in one day, while the Los Angeles cars leave that city on Friday morning.

H. H. Johnson Family to Make Home Here

H. H. Johnson has recently purchased a beautiful home at 509 East Windsor Road, through Dutton, the Home Finder. Mr. Johnson is interested in the Army and Navy Store which has recently leased the building at the southwest corner of Harvard and Brand, their business having outgrown their present quarters. Mr. Johnson is expecting his family from the north who will make their future home here.

Two Clever Singers Head Vaudeville at Glendale Tonight

Morse & Clark presenting "An Artistic Vocal Episode" will be starred on the vaudeville bill at the Glendale Theatre tonight. This is a delightful act presented by two exceedingly clever singers. Walker & Brown will contribute "Comedy, Singing, Talking and Dancing" of an entirely different character from the usual offering of this kind.

Bert Ford is billed as "The Musical Doughboy." He is a clever musician and offers an act that is as quaint as it is appealing. Ford has been a big favorite all along the circuit and should be very popular in Glendale.

Drisko & Earl style their contribution as "A Rollicking, Rapid-Fire, Laughable Comedy of Originality and Fun." It is packed with laughs and should be a sure-fire hit. James and Jessie Burns, "Novelty Tight and Slack Wire Artists," will complete the program with some real thrills.

Shirley Mason, the dainty Fox star, who has won hosts of friends at home and abroad, will be seen in "Jackie," the visualization of a story by Countess Barynska. It is said to present Miss Mason in a peculiarly appealing role, as a little waif in London, who dreams of achieving a great career as a dancer. Her changes of mood, of dress, and of condition in life under strange circumstances provide the popular little star with abundant room to display her histrionic ability.

No Change in Plan for Soldiers' Bonus

By A. O. HAYWARD
Written for International News Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11.—There is to be no change in the plan of the soldier bonus because of the opposition of treasury officials or because of the reports that President Harding disapproved of the bill in its present form, Chairman Fordney of the House ways and means committee declared today. The bill, according to the schedule worked out by Republican leaders, will be brought from the committee unchanged, and will be passed by the House without alteration.

Fordney would not discuss the attack by Comptroller of the Currency Cressinger and others connected with the treasury on the proposed legislation.

Governor W. P. G. Harding of the federal reserve board told the Republican members of the ways and means committee when he consulted with them over the ability of banks to loan money on the bonus certificates, the member banks had borrowed at that time only $700,000,000 from the federal reserve banks. This aggregate of loans to member banks is very low.

Postponement of action by the full ways and means committee from today until Monday on the bonus bill will not delay action on it by the House, Fordney said. Unless present plans change, the bill will not be called up in the House for passage before Monday, March 20.

MAY STOP FREE SEEDS

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11.—Congressmen who have been in the habit of "mending their political fences" with the free garden seeds which the government gives them every year got a jolt from the house appropriations committee. The bill, which was to carry an allowance of $360,000 for this purpose, was reported with the seed appropriation missing. Members who think that they ought to get the seeds promise a fight to restore the appropriation.

Train robberies occurred in Belgium last year for the first time in its history.

Senate Finds Slight Given by War Bureau

WASHINGTON.—The Senate has bared its teeth to the War Department over an alleged "slight" suffered when the Unknown Soldier was buried.

The War Department, in charge of the funeral parade, placed the Senate far back in the line of march, behind hundreds of clerks and secretaries to bureau heads. The Senators brought up the rear of the parade but withheld protests because of the sacredness of the event.

The "slight" however, was not forgotten. It was sharply recalled by Senator Ashurst, Democrat, of Arizona, on the floor of the Senate. "How can this body expect the reverence of the people when the War Department offers us a slight and we accept it without protest," he said. "We were last in line when the Unknown Soldier was buried. This illustrious body, the elected of the people, was forced to march behind clerks and secretaries. It was an indignity that made one's blood boil."

"Yes, the War Department told us to take a back seat," interrupted Senator Robinson, Democrat, of Arkansas.

Flapper Much Abused, Says Congresswoman

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Miss Alice Robertson, congresswoman from Oklahoma is not one to slap the flapper. She's for short skirts, too, but she believes they might have the hem shaken out a little. "Miss Alice" was here to speak at a women's club dinner.

"The flapper is much abused," she declared. "She's a little faddy, it's true, but doesn't she follow the example of her elders?"

"She hears about fads all the time in the home, about her father's home brew and golf and her mother's low waists and high skirts."

"If she wants to flip-flap around a little in her goshoses, I can't see what harm it will do."

"As for clothes, however," Miss Robertson continued, "I don't believe the modern woman's dress is a sign of depravity at all. I'm for the short skirt, but I believe it ought to be let down a little."

"And I believe the waists might be made a little higher."

"For one thing I don't believe the extreme styles do much harm, because it's the ugliest woman who shows the most. There's nothing very seductive about that."

Foremost Pianists to Be Heard at Glen Inn

The foremost pianists in the world are now making their headquarters at the Glen Inn.

Among them are Godowsky, Rachmaninoff, Ornstein, Van den Berg, Rubinstein, Busoni, Bauer, Hofman, Saint-Saens, Mascagni and Gabrilowitsch. They are giving special concerts for music lovers of Glendale.

Under the direction of Frank H. Wyman of the Loomis-Shuck Music company, 211 North Brand boulevard, a Haines-Ampico reproducing piano has been installed in the Glen Inn.

"This makes it possible for patrons of the Glen Inn to hear the finest music of the world played by the finest artists," declared Fred V. Shuck. "The music given on this instrument is a positive reproduction of the artist's playing. It contains all the fine tone coloring and blendings made possible only through its wonderful mechanism."

Like a player piano, the Haines-Ampico reproduces identically the moods and temperament of the artist. It needs no attention or regulation. "The Haines may be termed the official school and conservatory piano of America," continued Mr. Shuck commenting on the fact that fifteen of them have recently been installed in the public schools of Los Angeles. "It holds its preeminence by virtue of the fact that, aside from its marvelous quality of tone, it has an inbuilt lasting quality found in only a few pianos."

The repertoire at the Glen Inn contains many of the most beautiful and most noted selections in the world. Leopold Godowsky, who is known as the greatest pianist in the world, and whose fingers are insured for $250,000, will play Chopin's "Ballade."

"The Dance of the Hours" from Ponchielli's "La Gioconda" is played by Howard Brockway, who, also interprets Nevin's "The Rosary," which was written in New York city during 1897 as an expression of the composer's undying affection for his wife.

Maria Zucca, composer of a "Valse Brillante" herself will play this composition. "Ave Maria," the accompaniment for which was originally written by Bach for the Seventeenth Century clavier, is played by Hans Hanke. Among other numbers on the program are "Liebestraum," "A Dream of Love" by Liszt, interpreted by Leo Ornstein; a paraphrase from "Rigoletto," written by Verdi-Liszt and played by Ferruccio Busoni; Saint-Saens' "The Swan" and "The Blue Danube" by Strauss, played by Ethel Leginsky.

Only U. S. Flag Flies in Town of Armenia

ERIVAN, Armenia.—Some thirty American flags fly from as many buildings in this little town. It looks as American as any town in these parts could be. The only national anthem recognized and welcomed here is "The Star Spangled Banner." All hats are raised when it is played, and even Bolshevik supporters pay homage.

At banquets all toasts have reference to America or something American. Whether dead or alive, the "health" of prominent Americans is drunk. Recently at one banquet the "health" of Theodore Roosevelt and George Washington was toasted at the same time as that of Warren Harding.

Cuba's tobacco crop has averaged $50,000,000 annually for the past ten years.
